Mañana martes por la noche el Club Rotario de Río Piedras, en su reunión semanal, tendrá como huéspedes de honor a 36 rotarios acompañados de sus esposas, que están de visita en Puerto Rico, todos procedentes de Georgia.

Los rotarios visitantes y sus esposas han venido a Puerto Rico con el especial interés de conocer este país y de compenetrarse del desarrollo del programa económico-social que aquí está en marcha. Interesan, además, conocer el mayor número de rotarios de Puerto Rico y saber cómo se desenvuelve el rotarismo en este país.

La reunión que se celebra en el Club Rotario de Río Piedras constituye la primera de una serie de actividades en que los visitantes han de participar durante su estadía aquí. El jueves de esta misma semana tendrán una comida-bailé en el Hotel Condado auspiciada por el Club Rotario de Santurce. También visitarán varios puntos de la Isla.

La reunión será auspiciada conjuntamente por los Clubs Rotarios de San Juan y Río Piedras. Los rotarios asistirán esa noche, acompañados de sus esposas. Habrá una comida-buffet, después de la cual, se desarrollará un programa en el que participará como orador de la noche el Gobernador del Distrito Rotario de Puerto Rico, licenciado Héctor Reichard. Después del programa habrá música y baile.

La visita de los rotarios de Georgia a Puerto Rico contribuye a hacer realidad los propósitos que conlleva la celebración de la Semana de Compañerismo Mundial en el Servicio Rotario.

Del 18 al 24 del mes en curso se celebra en todo el mundo una actividad de intenso carácter entre los clubs rotarios con el propósito de establecer las más estrechas relaciones entre ellos y entre todos los rotarios del mundo. Es, precisamente, con la actividad de bienvenida a los rotarios de Georgia que se da principio a la celebración de esa semana en el rotarismo puertorriqueño.

El Club Rotario de Santurce, presidido por el señor Aníbal Martínez, ofrece un pasadía a los miembros de los Clubs Rotarios de Georgia de visita en la Isla. El acto tendrá lugar en Treasure Island, hoy viernes, a las 9:30 de la mañana.

AT THE AIRPORT

Among the Rotarians of the State of Georgia who made us a visit of Good Will during the four days, who were invited by the Rotary Clubs of the Metropolitan Zone of San Juan, there was one who came as a soldier who was among the North American troops that invaded Porto Rico in the year 1898.

This was Mr. W. B. Brosnan, who is now 75 years of age. He was one of the soldiers of the First Regiment of the Infantry of Georgia, under the command of General Brooks. They entered Porto Rico by way of Ponce and finally arrived at San Juan only to return to the Continent one month later, worn out and tired, but proud of the Spanish on the Island. Mr. Brosnan did not remember Porto Rico too well, but I heard him say that any one visiting Porto Rico now would find it a country completely changed and for him it was a new country. He has never been back to the Island since the time he came with the troops at the invasion of 1898. He said he was enchanted with his four day stay in San Juan. In Albany, Georgia, Mr. Brosnan was chief of the fire department for 41 years. He retired in 1953 after half a century of service in the organization. It is amazing to know that in all the time he was chief of the Fire Dept. of Albany, Ga., there was never a person who perished in a fire in that town, but he himself suffered a grave accident while combating a fire. He injured the structure of his spine, this was in 1939.

During the last years of service he had to go around accompanied by a nurse due to the injury of his vertebre, he now walks with difficulty.

During the 1931-1932, Mr. Brosnan was President of the International Association of Fire Departments. Another thing he is very proud of is that while he was Chief of the Fire department in Albany, Ga., they had the lowest type of insurance against fire of all the Southern States.

Mr. Brosnan is a tall and stout man. Even at his 75 years of age, he is well preserved and still has plenty of strength. He and Mrs. Brosnan have five sons.

En el Aeropuerto

Por Dario Carlo

Entre los Rotarios del estado de Georgia que nos hicieron una visita de buena voluntad, durante cuatro días, como invitados de los Rotarios de la zona metropolitana de San Juan, había uno que vino como soldado entre las tropas norteamericanas que invadieron a Puerto Rico en el año 1898.

Este es el señor D. W. Brosnan, quien ya frisa en los 75 años de edad. Fue uno de los soldados del Primer Regimiento de Infantería de Georgia que bajo el mando del general Brooks entraron a Puerto Rico por Ponce y finalmente llegaron hasta San Juan, para regresar al Continente un mes después, ya rendida la soberanía española sobre la Isla.

El señor Brosnan no tenía mucho recuerdo de Puerto Rico pero supo decir que el que había visto ahora era un país completamente cambiado y nuevo para él. No había vuelto a la Isla desde que vino con las tropas de invasión en el 1898. Dijo que había sido "encantadora" su estadía de cuatro días en San Juan.

En Albany, Georgia, el señor Brosnan fue Jefe de Bomberos durante 41 años. Se retiró en el 1953 después de medio siglo de servicio a la organización. Se ufana de que en el tiempo durante el cual fue Jefe de Bomberos de Albany ninguna persona pereció en un incendio en aquella ciudad.

Pero él mismo sufrió un grave accidente mientras combatía un fuego. Se lesionó la espina dorsal. Esto fue en el 1939. Durante los últimos años continuamente ha tenido que andar en compañía de una enfermera. Debido a la lesión en la vértebra camina con dificultad.

Durante el año de 1931-32, el señor Brosnan fue Presidente de la Asociación Internacional de Bomberos. Otra de las cosas que tiene a orgullo es que mientras fue Jefe de Bomberos la ciudad de Albany tuvo el más bajo tipo de seguro contra incendios entre todas las ciudades de los estados del Sur.

El señor Brosnan es un hombre de alta estatura y grueso. A pesar de sus 75 años de edad, se conserva bastante fuerte. Procreó cinco hijos en su matrimonio.

VIAJERO OFICIAL

D. W. Brosnan

A group of Rotarians from Gainsville, Georgia that were in Porto Rico in the middle of October left very much impressed at the hospitality and kindness of the Porto Rican people. One Married Rotary couple have invited ten outstanding students attending the Riverside Military Academy to spend a weekend at their home. This news was sent to the Secretary of the Mayor of the Capital, Miss Rincon Marrero. Mr. William A. Watt, one of the Directors of the group of Rotarians from Georgia that came to Porto Rico ended his visit on the Island by expanding his relationship with the Rotarians of Porto Rico. Besides, he informed the Rotary Club of Gainsville they are planning to invite all the foreign students who are studying in the Preparatory school of this city, and in which are enrolled various students of Porto Rico, to a lunch that will be organized in their honor.

Mr. Watt announced that between the Rotarians visiting Porto Rico last October they are again studying the idea of celebrating the meeting on the Island in the year 1957. In his communication Mr. Watt sent Miss Marrero a clipping published in an editorial of the Daily Times of Gainsville that spoke of the hospitality, culture and kindness of the country of Porto Rico.

In one paragraph of the editorial it read: The residents of Gainsville that went to that beautiful Island on the Caribbean returned impressed with the development of Porto Rico and the progress that has been attained in their fight against poverty, the ignorance and the occurrence of industrial curses. They also came back impressed by the courtesy and good manners of the Porto Rican people, including their pleasantness and their way of guiding the poor people of the Island.

The art of knowing the people of a foreign country (even though Porto Rico is a Territory) of the United States, their language, customs and culture are different from ours) consists in knowing them if only half way, to demonstrate to them that one desires to be their friend and to try hard to learn their language and their way of living.

Georgia and Porto Rico accomplished great things in this trip of Good Will. If we could only learn to visit people of other lands more often on the basis of friendship, there would be without doubt much less misunderstanding of this tired world and such misunderstandings would disappear between smiles and handshakes.

Reciprocidad

Rotarios de Georgia Alaban Cultura Isla

Un grupo de rotarios de Gainesville, Georgia, que estuvo en Puerto Rico a mediados del mes de octubre, salió tan bien impresionado de la hospitalidad y gentileza de los puertorriqueños, que un matrimonio rotario ha invitado a los diez estudiantes boricuas que asisten a la Riverside Military Academy para que pasen un fin de semana en su hogar.

Así se lo comunica a la Secretaria de la Capital, señorita Rincón Marrero, el señor William A. Watt, uno de los dirigentes del grupo de rotarios de Georgia que vino a Puerto Rico con el fin de visitar la Isla y estrechar sus relaciones con los rotarios puertorriqueños.

Informa, además, que el Club Rotario de Gainesville está planeando invitar a todas las estudiantes del extranjero que estudian en la escuela de la ciudad, en la cual hay matriculadas varias estudiantes de Puerto Rico, para un almuerzo que se organizará en su honor.

Anuncia el señor Watt que entre los rotarios que visitaron a Puerto Rico en octubre pasado se está estudiando la idea de celebrar la convención de los dos distritos de rotarios —Georgia y Puerto Rico— en la Isla en el 1957.

Con su comunicación el señor Watt envía a la señorita Rincón Marrero un recorte del editorial que publicara el periódico The Daily Times, de Gainesville, en el cual se elogia la hospitalidad, cultura y gentileza del pueblo de Puerto Rico.

ELOGIOS

En un párrafo del editorial se lee:

"Los residentes de Gainesville que fueron a esa bella isla del Mar Caribe regresaron impresionados con el desarrollo de Puerto Rico y el progreso que ha alcanzado en su lucha contra la pobreza, la ignorancia y la ausencia de recursos industriales. También llegaron impresionados con la cortesía y los buenos modales de los puertorriqueños, incluso, el modo amable y cortés de conducirse de la gente más pobre de la Isla".

Más adelante se dice:

"El arte de conocer a las gentes de un país extranjero (aunque Puerto Rico es un territorio de los Estados Unidos, su idioma, costumbres y cultura son diferentes a los nuestros) consiste en conocerlas aunque sea a medias, demostrarles que uno desea ser sus amigos y hacer algún esfuerzo en aprender su idioma y su modo de vivir".

"Georgia y Puerto Rico lograron grandes cosas con este viaje de buena voluntad. Si pudiéramos conocer y visitar a menudo a las gentes de otras tierras sobre esta base de amistad, no cabe duda de que muchas de las incomprensiones de este mundo cansado desaparecerían entre "sonrisas y apretones de manos".

Estimable Concept -- Between Us.

Don't want another day to go by without giving attention to a letter that Lady Boix de Buexeda had the kindness to send me and of which you readers will enjoy as much as I did. The letter was received by Arturo Barreto and Eyla Ramirez Barreto a married couple and residents of Hato Rey, and it was sent by an American married couple that was visiting in Porto Rico and on occasions attended the recent Rotary Convention, they are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph and Ocie Pope, Gainesville, Ga.

I thought, said Lady Buexeda, this was a very estimable and interesting concept that this American couple has formed of Porto Rico and the Porto Rican people. Being this does so much good and expresses a form so sincere, I thought maybe you could illustrate to them certain comments from all of us. Lady Buexeda I like the way you have talked here between us, thanks a million, we will see the outcome.

THE LETTER

Esteemed Mr. Barreto and Wife: We have been unable to find your address, so we have asked the McConnie couple to relay this letter on to you. In reality, we have been trying to find words to express our thoughts from the people of Porto Rico, so far, have found none. The Island truly is a paradise of beauty, but the greatest beauty we found, while there, was the spirit of the Porto Rican people, the love they have for each other, but even more, the love they have for the entire world.

We live in a section of Georgia, they call the (Southern Hospitality Area), but now we do not boast of this because you people have showed us the true meaning of hospitality. You have made us understand that we have grown to be satisfied only to live within our own circle. We have not been sufficiently friendly with our neighbors of other lands. We have had here students of Porto Rico various times in our Preparatory schools, and I know we have been careless in making them feel welcome to our land.

We are now preparing that when they do come to our homes, we will make sure that they ~~receive~~ are received the way they should be. It was a lovely and kind gesture on your part to invite us to your homes, this really was the best part of our trip, because it gave us the opportunity to enter the hearts of the Porto Rican people.

There is no better country, the family life is superb. The affection they show to each other is marvelous.

Want to Reciprocate. In the last paragraph of the Pope's letter it says:

We have called the Riverside Military Academy to invite the Alberto Morales couple to have dinner with us on Sunday. I met their parents at the Good Will dinner given in ~~RaxtaxRix~~ Rio Piedras. I wish your son was nearer to us so we could have him at our home, if this were possible, please be kind enough to tell him to visit us.

Raph is very grateful for the visit he had to your farm and we feel it was wonderful that destiny took us to this place of agriculture. We are waiting for the day we can reciprocate and receive you to our home. We have our trophy in the living room. It always brings memories of the persons like you, so kind, Sincerely, we thank you for everything and receive our affection.

Ocie and Ralph Pope

I imagine that after this shower of true comments that Lady Boix de Buexeda has been very kind in taking part with us all in this satisfaction.

CONCEPTO HALAGADOR

No quiero que pasen más días sin darle curso a una carta que Lady Boix de Buxeda tuvo la bondad de hacer llegar hasta mí, y la cual ustedes, lectoras, gozarán como yo.

Dicha carta fue recibida por los esposos Arturo Barreto y Eyla Ramírez de Barreto, residentes en Hato Rey, y enviada por un matrimonio americano que estuvo de visita en Puerto Rico y que ellos atendieron en ocasión de la reciente convención de Rotarios. Son los esposos Ralph y Ocie Pope, de Gainesville, Georgia.

"He pensado", dice Lady, "que es muy halagador e interesante el concepto que este matrimonio americano ha formado de Puerto Rico y los puertorriqueños. Como es algo que nos hace tanto bien y lo expresan en una forma tan sincera, he creído que quizás tú podrías comentarla en Entre Nosotras, sobre todo las frases que te subrayo".

ENTRE NOSOTRAS

Por Carmen Reyes Padró

Lady Boix de Buxeda

Así me gusta, Lady, que hables acá, entre nosotras. Gracias mil, y veamos el contenido.

LA CARTA

"Estimado señor Barreto y esposa: Se nos ha extraviado la dirección de ustedes, así que pediremos a los esposos McConnie que les envíen esta carta.

"Realmente hemos estado buscando palabras para expresar lo que pensamos de la gente de Puerto Rico y no las encontramos. La Isla verdaderamente es un paraíso de belleza, pero la belleza más grande que encontramos allí fue el espíritu de los puertorriqueños, el amor que se tienen unos a otros y, todavía más, el amor grande que tienen por las personas del mundo entero.

"Nosotros vivimos en una sección de Georgia que se llama Area Hospitalaria del Sudeste (Southern Hospitality Area), pero ya no nos jactaremos de ello, pues ustedes nos enseñaron el verdadero significado de la hospitalidad".

cuando vengán a nuestras casas sean recibidos como es debido.

"Fue un gesto muy bonito y gentil de su parte invitarnos a sus casas. Realmente fue lo mejor del viaje porque nos dio la oportunidad de adentrarnos en los corazones de los puertorriqueños, pues ningún país es mejor, ni la vida de familia que tienen supera a otras, y el cariño que se profesan unos a otros es maravilloso."

QUIEREN RECIPROCAR

En los últimos párrafos de la carta dicen los esposos Pope:

"Ya hemos llamado a la Riverside Military Academy para invitar a los esposos Morales (Alberto) a comer con nosotros el domingo. Conocí a sus padres en la comida de bienvenida con que nos agasajaron en Río Piedras.

"Desearía tanto que su hijo es-tuviera cerca de nosotros para tenerlo siempre en casa. Si hubiese esa posibilidad, tenga la bondad de decirle que queremos que nos visite.

"A Ralph le agradó mucho la visita que hizo a la finca de ustedes y fue maravilloso que el destino nos enviara al hogar de dos agricultores. Espero que algún día podamos reciprocarnos y recibirlos a ustedes en casa. Tenemos nuestro trofeo en la sala y siempre nos traerá recuerdos de personas tan bondadosas como son ustedes.

"Sinceramente les damos las gracias por todo, y reciban el cariño de (firmado) Ocie y Ralph Pope."

TODOS A UNA...

Me parece que después de esto, huelgan los comentarios, ¿verdad? En cuanto a Lady Boix de Buxeda, ha sido muy bondadosa en compartir con todos nosotros tanta satisfacción...

HAN COMPRENDIDO

"Ustedes nos han hecho comprender que nosotros hemos crecido y estado muy satisfechos con nuestro círculo. No hemos sido lo suficientemente amigables con nuestros vecinos de otros lugares.

"Hemos tenido aquí estudiantes de Puerto Rico varias veces en nuestros colegios y sé que hemos fracasado en hacerles sentir que son bienvenidos en nuestra tierra. Ahora nos ocuparemos de que

Culver Wins in Tennis Tourney

Buddy Culver of St. Simons copped the singles title in the junior veterans division of the fourth annual Ocala Junior Veterans and Seniors' Invitational tennis tournament completed in Ocala Sunday.

Jack Staton of St. Petersburg won the seniors division.

Both victors had to fight hard to overcome their opponents. Culver was blanked in the first set by J. F. (Tommy) Thompson of Neptune Beach, but the St. Simons' youth came back strong in advancing to the finals and won the sets 6-1, 7-5.

Culver, who was chosen as the dark horse in the junior veterans field, proved just that in winning the title. Thompson looked unbeatable in the opening set, but shots that were dropping for him in then began to miss by slight margins in the final two sets of play as Culver tightened up and had him on the move.

German Student Tells of College Life Contrasts

A German exchange student, who is preparing himself for a career in his country's foreign service, gave St. Simons Rotary Club members an insight into the life of a German college student in a talk before the group yesterday.

Hans J. Heinrich, whose home is Sarrbrücken, is in this country to study economics and English.

He said he was quite surprised to find the many rules governing student life and activities in this country. He explained that in Germany the college student has much less done for him and is expected to be sufficiently mature to conduct his own affairs.

By way of example, he pointed out that the German student does not live in dormitories and is not subject to class roll calls or attendance checks.

Mr. Heinrich said that he felt the underlying thoughts throughout his country, if not most of Europe, is the feeling that another war is inevitable. He also said that existing pessimism in Europe is caused by the fear of Russian occupation.

Besides the higher standards of living, he said the things most noticeable to him as a newcomer to the United States was a general attitude of friendliness and optimism.

King, Butler Address Island Rotary Members

St. Simons Island Rotary members at a meeting yesterday were reminded of the objectives of the current Mental Health campaign and briefed on the Ruth League baseball picture of the island.

Gen. E. P. King, Jr., membership chairman of the local Health unit, told members the objective of the Mental Health campaign, now being conducted throughout the county was members and not funds.

The goal, he explained, was to make "every member of every family a member."

C. T. Butler, Glynn recreation director, detailed the efforts in the Babe Ruth baseball league and urged increased attendance by the parents and other friends.

He explained the plans of state and regional contests in the Babe Ruth League, made for boys 13-15 years old. He also asked for assistance on the team's coaching and managing staffs to care of the expanded athletic program on St. Simons.

Gaines

"Were you at the Rotary luncheon last Wednesday?"

"Yes. Didn't you see me?"

"No. I couldn't see the people for the crowd." In fact President W. P. announced that there were 468 present, more than 200 of these being visitors. The special occasion was the official visit of the president of Rotary International, Gian Paolo Lang, and his Rotaryann from Livirno, Italy. The "impeccable" W. P. presided in his inimitable manner. I think that he did not really forget to introduce Rotaryann Valentina at first. That was a stunt to illustrate his joke on forgetfulness since every good story is supposed to have a point. The committees arranging for the occasion did an excellent job, the entertainment of the guests, the decorations and the food. Don't ever say that the Dempsey can't do it. That may have been Cornish hens which were served, but they were soon completely Americanized and "integrated". Mayor B. F. Merritt gave dignity to the occasion and presented the honor guest with a silver key to Macon.

Present at the meeting were governors and their Rotaryanns of districts 241 and 240. Governor Lester W. Hosch introduced the governor-nominee of District 241, Dr. James A. Wood of Brunswick. About 30 foreign students were presented. Greetings were extended in a telegram from the Pilot Club International which has headquarters in Macon. Mrs. Rhea Richardson, accompanied by Crockett Odom, delighted the group with a vocal number.

Bill Simmons, in his usual fluent and appropriate manner, introduced the speaker, who expressed appreciation for the many courtesies extended him and Mrs. Lang during their visit in Macon. The President stated that they had traveled 65,000 miles by air and had found that Rotary is commanding respect and cooperation in the 99 countries in which it is organized. According to the speaker, all men, regardless of color or creed, ask to live in peace. Rotary is contributing to this ideal, especially through the exchange of students. The President magnified three goals for Rotary:

1. Keep Rotary simple.
2. More Rotary in Rotarians.
3. Learn more about each other.

"A candle loses nothing of its light by lighting another candle", said the speaker. Rotary should be a big family and help promote good international relationship. Cicero was quoted as saying, "Long life is denied us. Therefore let us do something to show that we have lived."

The meeting was an outstanding occasion in the life of the Macon Rotary Club. I am sure that the visitors went away feeling that "Macon really did it."

For the traveler, Switzerland offers 16,000 square miles of soaring mountain peaks, placid lakes, sunny beaches, extravagantly-flowered meadows, and wide choices of climate, ranging from the balmy weather of the south to the frigid temperature of the Alps—all combined with comfortable hotels, splendid roads and efficient public transportation.

In the heart of Switzerland lies the delightful city of Lucerne, which is to be host to Rotarians from around the world in May. Facing the sparkling blue waters of the Lake of Lucerne, and surrounded by lofty, snow-capped mountain peaks, Lucerne is world-famed as a modern holiday resort city, which still retains all of the charm and fascination of the Middle Ages.

The Alpine beauty of Central Switzerland is easily accessible from Lucerne in short half-day trips by lake boat, funicular railway, aerial cableway and cogwheel railway.

Attendance at a Rotary International Convention always is a memorable occasion because of its internationality and its inspiration. Attendance at the Rotary International Convention in the beautiful city of Lucerne will be one of the great experiences of your life.

THIS WEEK

Bill Bridges is keeping up his racing stroke in procuring good programs for May. This week we welcome as our guest and speaker Rotarian Sam W. Wells, Personnel Director for the Cloister, Sea Island, Ga., and a darn good, charter member, and hard worker in the St. Simons Rotary Club. Rotarian Sam is presently Secretary-Treasurer of his club and has a wide reputation as a speaker. Welcome to Tifton Rotary, Rotarian Sam.

We cannot help but note the large number of complimentary remarks made about the fine introduction of last week's speaker by President-Elect Calhoun Bowen. Good deal, Calhoun!

The Bulletin staff thinks it is about time that acknowledgement was made of the quiet service to the Club rendered each meeting time by Rotarian Murray Thomas. Murray usually answers the telephone from three to five times per meeting and your editor has observed the unobtrusive and efficient manner in which he handles the calls. Just another good Rotarian doing his duty.

LAST WEEK

Rotarian Sam Wells of the St. Simons Island Rotary Club gave an inspiring talk based, to a large extent, on the book "Words to Live By" written by Rotarian Sam's good friend, William I. Nicholls. We enjoyed his talk and look forward to another visit from him whenever he will come over this way.

year was accepted by delegates at the state convention held at Look-out Mountain over the weekend, Jack Cofer, island club president, said.

Mr. Parker, who was elected to head the state Jaycees, named Mr. Strother as his selection for the state office.

The second appointment, that of state treasurer, has not yet been made, along with the naming of state committee heads.

Besides having served as a state director, Mr. Strother was the first president of the St. Simons Jaycees and has since then served on the island club's board of directors and is presently chairman of the membership committee.

"Bill was my choice as the best man for the job," Mr. Parker said, "and I know he will perform his usual good job." The newly elected president, who will take office July 1, said that no advance commitments were made on executive or committee appointments and he was at liberty to "pick the best men in the state," for the various offices.

The 1958 convention, scheduled May 15-17, is expected to draw nearly 1,000 young men and women from over the state, representing over 100 clubs. It will be a combined meeting, with delegates from the Jayettes, also attending.

Headquarters of the state meeting will be the King and Prince Hotel, Mr. Cofer said.

The island club won out over Macon in its bid for the 1958 convention site.

Hercules May Have Blasted Mosquitoes 'Off' Targets

Hercules Powder Co., which has been living with Brunswick's mosquitoes since 1920, may have at last licked them.

If so, the achievement may bring the local plant more laurels than its widely heralded production of a catalyst which enabled cold rubber synthetic tires some years back.

Hercules is not out to kill the mosquitoes. It just mixes up something that makes them look for somebody else.

The stuff, called Delphene, is so good you can't buy any. The plant is sold out. The S. C. Johnson Co., aggressive merchandizer of waxes and other household items, has bought every last barrel the plant here can make.

It's the magic ingredient in the pressure can sold under the name of "Off." While Off just hit the counters of the drug stores in recent months, backed by a strong advertising program hailing its powers it is leaving all the other repellents on the shelf.

Dr. Robert B. Scott, a supervisor in the Hercules laboratory, told about Delphene in the course of a talk to the St. Simons Island Rotary Club yesterday.

It was discovered by the United States Department of Agriculture and Hercules found it was equipped at the Brunswick plant to turn it out, he said. Materials, including an ingredient made by another Hercules plant, are shipped here for processing.

The repellent is so effective that present facilities can't turn out enough. The plant is doing all it can and meantime Hercules is awaiting market reports to determine if a plant will be constructed just to produce Delphene. Only Brunswick is now making it in quantity. Dr. Scott says he thinks it is the best material found thus far, "pretty high class stuff."

In his talk he traced the establishment of Hercules in 1913 as result of an anti-trust order which required DuPont to set up two competitors in the powder making field. Hercules bought the Yaryan plant here in 1920.

From one product, powder, it went on to 800 products made by six divisions in most of the 48 states and England.

The plant here uses virgin pine wood stumps as its raw material. The stumps are ground and crude rosin dissolved from them with a solvent. From the crude comes various refined rosins, Binzol, Belro, and oils. The oils include turpentine, pine oil, anethole, and terpin hydrate.

But right now the focus is on Delphene. Sorry, said Dr. Scott, no sales at the plant.

MARINE GIRL SCOUTS SPEND WEEK ON ISLAND

Two groups of senior Marine Girl Scouts saw the climax to a year of troop activities this week as they vacationed on St. Simons Island, lapping up sunshine.

One group from Gulfport, Miss., under the direction of Mrs. D. L. Chamberlain, is making an 11-day trip by chartered bus. The party of 21 girls came through Florida from the Gulf coast and after spending several days on the island, with Epworth by the Sea their headquarters, left yesterday for Savannah to visit the Juliette Low home before returning to Gulfport. Mrs. Chamberlain is the sister of Mrs. Quosly Weaver of Sea Island.

The other group of 10 girls from Chattanooga, Tenn., is under the direction of Mrs. Homer Welch who also has family connections here. Mrs. Welch's son-in-law is Bob Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Everett of St. Simons. Mr. and Mrs. Everett accompanied the group to help where needed and to visit on the island.

The Gulfport girls made their own summer uniforms in preparation for the trip, in addition to raising large sum of money, $1,000, needed for financing. They specialize in water activities, learning how to handle boats and all must have senior lifesaving courses among other requirements.

During their visit this week the Chattanooga girls met Olaf Olsen, Jr.'s Sea Scouts who have the same marine interests. The girls were their guests aboard a 40-foot crash boat on Monday night, ending the outing with a picnic supper on Jekyll.

On Wednesday they toured Savannah and had lunch at the Pirate House. Wednesday night
