Last Week's Program (July 13, 2004)

Jekyll Island Musical Theatre Festival

The Jekyll Island Musical Theatre came to entertain us. The Jekyll Island Musical Theatre is a partnership between Valdosta State University and the Jekyll Island Authority. The Theatre is in its 15th season.

Jackie Wheeler, Artistic Director and Duke Guthrie, Managing Director joined us with performers to present a selection from each musical playing this season. Ms. Wheeler told us of their hopes to raise the professional quality of the entertainment through an equity membership candidacy program. Their goal is to make the Jekyll Island Musical Festival a regional event.

Two of the performers this season are equity members returning to the festival. They are otherwise currently living in New York City trying to make a career of acting.

This season, the festival interpreted two shows in sign language for the deaf. They have conducted workshops to train interpreters and have had a wonderful response to both the workshops and the two performances.

A golf cart is available to help those in need of help in getting to their seating. Advance ticket locations on St. Simons include Roberta's and The Book Mark. The club presented the theatre with a check for a small token of support at the end of the performance.

The schedule for the rest of the season:

Forever Plaid – July 20, 24

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat – July 22, 25

Brigadoon – July 23

And thanks to Charles Lewis, Bill McDougall and Tom Parker for being extras in the performance!

The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
