Fred Stregles
Executive Director
McIntosh County Development Authority

Fred Stregles has served as executive director of the McIntosh County Development Authority for the last four years.

He also serves as vice chairman of the Southeast Georgia Joint Development Authority Board, as secretary/treasurer of the Association of Development Authorities of Georgia, and as a board member of the Coastal Georgia Regional Development Center.

He and his wife, Cindy, have three daughters.

Fred noted that McIntosh ranks 11th in size among Georgia's 159 counties, but has only 12,000 population.

He talked about the "very successful" outlet mall in Darien, development of the industrial park, and plans to improve and enlarge the grass airfield in McIntosh.

He also talked about the continuing transitioning of land ownership from International Paper to other private owners.

2007 Community Recognition Award

On May 15 we will celebrate the winner of the 2007 Community Recognition Award. Last year the winner was Fred Freyer and the St. Simons Land Trust. This award was created to recognize someone or organization who has made a difference in our community. Please send any recommendations you have to Chuck Cansler - chuck@canslerssi.com 634-8141.

The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
