The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Don Fielder introduced Joel Meyer, the General Manager of Little St. Simons Island. After presenting highlights of Joel's bio, Don announced a special discount being made available to our club members. Don also mentioned that Joel is newly engaged to be married.

Joel opened with a discussion of some humorous family matters, his six years at the King & Prince, and related a story about Cal Paynter. A show of hands revealed many present had been to Little St. Simons Island and would like to return. Joel's talk included an audio-video presentation about the Island. He went on to explain what has changed on the Island and what has not; the plans for an easement to prevent unwanted development; and the goal to keep the island "as is forever." Joel discussed several plans or packages available for visiting the island, including multi-nights, single-nights, day trips, and things available with the Rotary discount coupons. Joel related several humorous tales about the Island; discussed and dismissed a number of misconceptions; discussed family-style dining there, and invited all to "come on over." Joel closed with an interesting Q&A session.

Special Rotabucks Drawing

The drawing today was a two-part drawing: (1) A free night's stay for two on Little St. Simons Island, awarded to Wally Forsythe; and (2) $98 awarded to Clyde Taylor. Congratulations, gentlemen.
