U.S. Representative Jack Kingston

Representative Kingston, who has served Georgia's 1st District for the past 14 years and is now in his eighth term in the U.S. House, addressed these issues:

- Children's health care: He warned about expanding this coverage to those other than children.
- Immigration: Although people are "furious" about this problem, he said it is difficult to get real reform.
- Energy: He said the United States needs a "mature conversation" about drilling for oil in Alaska and off-shore.
- Iraq: "Pulling out slowly is probably the strongest course."
- Tax cuts: He said it "doesn't look good" for maintaining the Bush tax cuts.

As a member of the House Appropriations Committee, which is responsible for deciding how the federal budget is spent, Congressman Kingston serves on the Defense Subcommittee, which oversees all military-based funding. With the 1st District home to, Moody AFB, Ft. Stewart, Hunter Army Airfield and Naval Submarine Base Kings Bay, Congressman Kingston has a special interest in America's defense abilities.

Recently appointed Ranking Member on the Appropriations Committee's Agriculture Subcommittee, he maintains a close relationship with Georgia's farmers.

He is often a guest on network television shows such as Fox News, MSNBC, the Daily Show, the Colbert Report and Real Time with Bill Maher.

His conservative track record has won him recognition and awards from many citizens' groups and media outlets. Congressman Kingston's district encompasses 25 counties in South Georgia stretching from Savannah to St. Marys, north to Wheeler County and includes four major military installations, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Brunswick, and the ports of Savannah and Brunswick.

Congressman Kingston lives in Savannah. He is married and has four children and two dogs.

(Representative Kingston was introduced by Marie Dodd.)
