Club Assembly

Reports from the Club President and Directors

As he opened the Club Assembly, President Chuck Cansler asked all new members to consider the opportunities and needs available to serve within our club.

“We need help in several areas at this time,” he said. “All new members and our club would benefit from you volunteering to the extent your schedule allows. Volunteers should communicate directly with the appropriate director.”

Chuck also said he hoped the club could secure a district grant this year.

Directors Wank Davis (Club Relations & Public Relations), Everett Millican (Club Service & Membership), Wally Forsythe (Community Service), Stan Humphries (International Service) and Robert Cable (Vocational Service) gave reports on their areas of responsibility. Gary Schwartz reported on the Programs & Fellowship Committee in the absence of Director Don Fielder.

Among the things club members learned is that former University of Georgia football coach (and athletic director) Vince Dooley will speak to our club the Tuesday before the annual Georgia-Florida game. We also learned that our Group Study Exchange visitors next spring will be from the Amazon region of Brazil.

Meeting Place Research

Sergeant-at-Arms Mike Harris reported on research he has done into options for a regular meeting place, including available food choices.

His conclusion: Sea Palms is the only place that can accommodate a club of our size on a consistent basis while providing a lot of food choices and affordable prices.

He also noted that Sea Palms has plans to enlarge the facility.
