Classification Talks

Wesley Cox spoke to the club on Radio Broadcasting. He owns the local radio station located at 1100 on your AM dial. He spoke of dealing with the FCC when applying for the radio Station 92.7 on St. Simons in 1979. He has been on the radio at 1100 AM since 1989. One of his broadcasters is Dave Ramsey. He wishes he had the funds to support local news. When asked about how the Fairness Doctrine will affect talk radio, he said it would put most of them out of business. He invites you to listen to his station and welcomes your suggestions. Wesley lives with his wife and four children on St. Simons.

Millard Allen spoke of his life after he retired. In 2004 he joined Rotary. Some of his accomplishments are: Appointed to the Planning Commission, Chairman of the School Board of Glynn County, President of the Men’s Golf Association at Sea Palms, President of the Military Officer’s Association for the last 2 years, and Elder at St. Simons Presbyterian Church. He has served in various capacities on the Rotary Board and is a Paul Harris Scholar. He is proud to be a part of Rotary.

Jerry Schueneman introduced the speakers.
