The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

- 1. Is it the truth?
- 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Heather Heath, Executive Director
Golden Isles Arts and Humanities Association

Heather Heath joined the staff of Golden Isles Arts and Humanities Association (GIAHA) in 1998 and became its Executive Director in 1999. Heather has over 20 years experience working in the arts with a strong background in theatre. A graduate of Florida State University, Heather worked professionally as an actor in over 50 productions in the Atlanta area and the Southeast. Heather serves on the following boards: Advisory Board of the Georgia Council for the Arts; Advisory Board of the Georgia Center for Non-Profits (Brunswick/Savannah office); and the Advisory Board of Keep Brunswick-Golden Isles Beautiful. She is married to the Mayor of Brunswick, Bryan Thompson, and they live in Old Town Brunswick with their dog, Brinks and their cats, RC, Olive and Rainy.

Classification Talks

Bill Abel spent 35 years with Amica Mutual Insurance Company after completing his military service. Bill was born and raised in Rhode Island and is of Scottish descent. He and his wife, Susan, raised 5 exceptionally athletic children and lived on Beacon Street just down from Cheers. In 1976 they purchased a lot on Sea Island and built their home. He has a 7 handicap in golf and has won 2 tournaments.

Jennifer Broadus is a native of Hamburg, NY and graduated from Kent State University and was present on the historical date of May 4, 1970. Her first job after graduation was with a publishing firm in New York City where she earned $125/week and was ecstatic! Jennifer along with her husband, Bob, founded Broadus Advertising Agency and have been working together for the last 30 years. Five years ago she decided to start painting and is represented by the Left Bank Art Gallery.

Itzhak Perlman Joins Chicago Symphony Orchestra in Concert to End Polio

Rotary International News -- 1 February 2011

Rotary International is teaming up with violin virtuoso Itzhak Perlman and members of the world-renowned Chicago Symphony Orchestra to present a Concert to End Polio at Symphony Center in Chicago, 7 March 2011. James DePreist will conduct. All proceeds from the event will benefit Rotary's US$200 Million Challenge.

Perlman contracted polio at age four and overcame serious physical challenges to become one of the world's most recognized musicians. DePreist is also a polio survivor and was inspired by Perlman.

Tickets to the concert are priced between $50 and $200. Tickets to a post-concert reception with Perlman are $150. Purchase tickets for both events online or call 312-294-3000. The program for the concert includes the following:

- Berlioz -- The Corsair Overture, Op. 21
- Stravinsky -- Suite from The Firebird (1919 Revision)
- Mendelssohn --Violin Concerto in E Minor, Op.64
- Kreisler -- Liebesfreud

View a video invitation from Rotary Foundation Trustee Chair Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar to the benefit concert. Romance Op. 28, No. 2 in F minor, which is the music underscoring the video, was written by Stenhammar's grandfather, Wilhelm. In 1985, the CSO performed Wilhelm Stenhammar's Symphony No. 1 in F major. In a sold-out event in New York City on 2 December 2009, RI joined with Perlman and the New York Philharmonic for the first time to present a Concert to End Polio.
