The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

- 1. Is it the truth?
- 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Today's Program - March 1, 2011

Alan Ours, Glynn County Administrator

Alan Ours is the newly appointed Administrator for Glynn County Board of Commissioners. He brings to the position 28 years of experience in local government management. He is a graduate of Winthrop College which is located in South Carolina. In 1982, he took his first local government position after completing a degree in Political Science. Since that time, he has served as Deputy Administrator of Spartanburg County, SC; County Manager of Lowndes County, GA; and County Administrator of Pickens County, SC and Lee County, GA.

Alan began working with Glynn County in August of 2010. He has been married for 27 years to Elizabeth with whom he has 10 children (6 boys and 4 girls).

Program - February 22, 2011

This program was very special in that we had the pleasure of listening to six gifted participants during the speech contest, all with promising futures. The speakers were Cameron Dionne, Michael Love, and McKenzie Foster from Brunswick High; Sarah Lane, Garrett Herrin from Glynn Academy; and Aaron Wortham from Frederica Academy. Their topic of choice was either the Four Way Test or Rotary International. (Continued on page 3)
