The Four-Way Test

of the things we think, say or do

- 1. Is it the truth?
- 2. Is it fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Today's Program—October 5, 2010

William Rawlings, Jr., MD, MSH, FACP, will discuss how the rise in electronic readers is changing publishing. William currently has a private practice of internal medicine in Sandersville and is semi-retired. He is author of 25 scientific papers and five best-selling novels—the most recent being The Mile High Club released in 2009. William is listed in the Georgia Writers Registry, is a frequent author-contributor to magazines and newspapers, and is involved in numerous other business interests with memberships on several business and charitable boards. He is a State of Georgia General Contractor, an IATA Accredited Travel Agent, and recipient of an award from the Georgia Trust for Historic Preservation for Building Rehabilitation.

Program—September 28, 2010

Edward Bland, CPA, is the Interim CFO for the Coastal Medical Access Project (CMAP). Edward discussed CMAP, its growing uninsured population, its services and the need for financial support and volunteers. Edward next turned the subject of his presentation to health care—explaining benefits and issues and fielding many questions about the subject.

From Rotary International

A Road to Remember, by Arnold R. Grahl
 Rotary International News -- 27 September 2010

Joanne and Brando Pistorius at the outset of their round-trip journey from Tampa, Florida, to the 2010 RI Convention in Montréal, Québec, Canada in their 1930 Packard.

Rotarian Joanne Pistorius found a stylish way to travel to the 2010 RI Convention in Montréal, Québec, Canada, in June.

Pistorius, a member of the Rotary Club of Tampa Hyde Park, Florida, USA, and her husband, Brando, drove their vintage 1930 Packard from Tampa to Montréal as part of a three-week, 4,000-mile round-trip journey in late June and early July.

"So many people we met did not know what Rotary International does, and we were able to share that with them," says Pistorius, president of the North American chapter of the Antique, Classic, and Historic Automobile World Fellowship of Rotarians. "It was an exceptional PR opportunity and a chance to stop off at Rotary clubs along the way for a meal and a make-up, and to talk about the fellowship.

"We met some of the friendliest people on earth and saw the most beautiful parts of America," she adds. "The great thing about doing a Rotary make-up is you are treated like royalty wherever you go." Pistorius's husband has been fixing up antique cars since his youth in South Africa. After the couple met and married in Tampa 10 years ago, they started their own real estate company and traveled extensively to antique car shows as a hobby. When the real estate market went soft, the couple turned Brando's habit of buying, restoring, and selling a "project" car each year into a more substantial income generator.
