Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third

The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service

The Four-Way Test of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Today's Program: August 7, 2012

Congressman Jack Kingston

A member of the House Appropriations Committee, which is responsible for deciding how the federal budget is spent, Jack Kingston serves on the Defense Subcommittee which oversees all military-based funding. With the First District home to: Moody AFB, Ft. Stewart, Hunter Army Airfield and Naval Submarine Base Kings Bay, Kingston has a special interest in America's defense abilities. Kingston's down-to-earth style and common sense approach to issues has made him one of the strongest communicators in Congress. He is often a guest on network television shows such as Fox News, MSNBC, the Daily Show, Red Eye, the Colbert Report and Real Time with Bill Maher.

Fellow Rotarian Martin Turbidy will introduce the Congressman and provide more background information.

Last Week's Program: July 31, 2012

Major General Jim Butterworth Adjutant General, Georgia National Guard

The commander of the Georgia Department of Defense assured us right off the bat that the Georgia National Guard is here to defend our borders – from those orange-clad Florida invaders to our south. Then Maj Gen Butterworth shared with us what the Guardsmen under his command really do.

Appointed Adjutant General in September 2011 by Gov. Nathan Deal, Maj Gen Butterworth is responsible for 14,000+ National Guard members and 500 state employees. More than 11,000 are soldiers in the Army National Guard, while 2,800+ are airmen in the Air National Guard.

Just don't call them "weekend warriors." Maj Gen Butterworth calls that an outdated term, since about 1,000 Guardsmen are "in harm's way right now defending freedom" in countries around the world. He added that, "We put our everyday jobs behind us to take up arms. And in a real-world threat, we're looking over our shoulder even here at home."

The National Guard occupies a dual role: to supply units to combatant commanders and to provide homeland defense. Should a hurricane threaten the Georgia coast, the National Guard will be here. In fact, the National Guard is already here in Glynn County, he pointed out, introducing two guests: Lt Col Charles West and CMSgt David West, both of Brunswick.

How can we as Georgia citizens and Rotarians support our National Guard? Maj Gen Butterworth suggests four ways:

Support Guardsmen when they return home from war zones

Hire a hero (some 30 percent will be unemployed when they get back)

Support Guard families

Remember the troops in our prayers (Georgia Army National Guard troops are deployed in Afghanistan until October)
